

Pastoral Vacancy Posting

Dunbar Community Bible Church (non-denominational, independent) in Dunbar, Wisconsin, is seeking a pastor who will shepherd its small but dedicated congregation. Our church's services are blended to contemporary in style. We are committed to mutual discipleship under the preaching and teaching of the Word. Moreover, we are active partners with area community ministries and youth center. The church and its surrounding rural community is in northeast Wisconsin near the border of Michigan's Upper Peninsula. The prospective candidate should have an M.Div., an equivalent, or in-process of a post-bachelor's program. The candidate should have prior ministry experience, especially rural ministry, is preferred. He will also have particularly strong gifts in expositional/exegetical preaching and teaching as well as the ability to relate to people both within the church and community. This is a bi-vocational position. Housing allowance and re-location expenses will be provided. Interested candidates should send their resume and a recording of a sermon to Chris McLain at ssgwiththeoldbreed@gmail.com.